Twixmas Cold Water Dip for Young Lives vs Cancer - complete! 🙌✅

Surprised I didn't sink, what with the extra pounds gained over the past few days 🤔😅

It was definitely fresh!

The waves were fun...although some were brutal.

I achieved a good swim and lots of play...managed to lose a swim shoe too - my feet were so cold, I didn't even notice, until I saw it floating around as I got out 😅

All my boys were there, watching and cheering me on 🥳

Thank you SO much, to everybody that has supported me with this - what an incredible amount to raise for Young Lives vs Cancer, you guys are AWESOME! 🙌🥳

Your money will be used to support children and young people, faced with a cancer diagnosis. The fundraiser will remain open for another week or so, should anybody still wish to donate 🤝
